Dr Sir:

I met with quite a loss by fire last week, but will try and meet those notes in November, and earlier, if I possibly can. I am sorry that they have run this long, knowing the condition of the University. Hope you will be cleared of her debt.

very respectfully

Yours

Steele, Dakota, Nov. 18th 1884

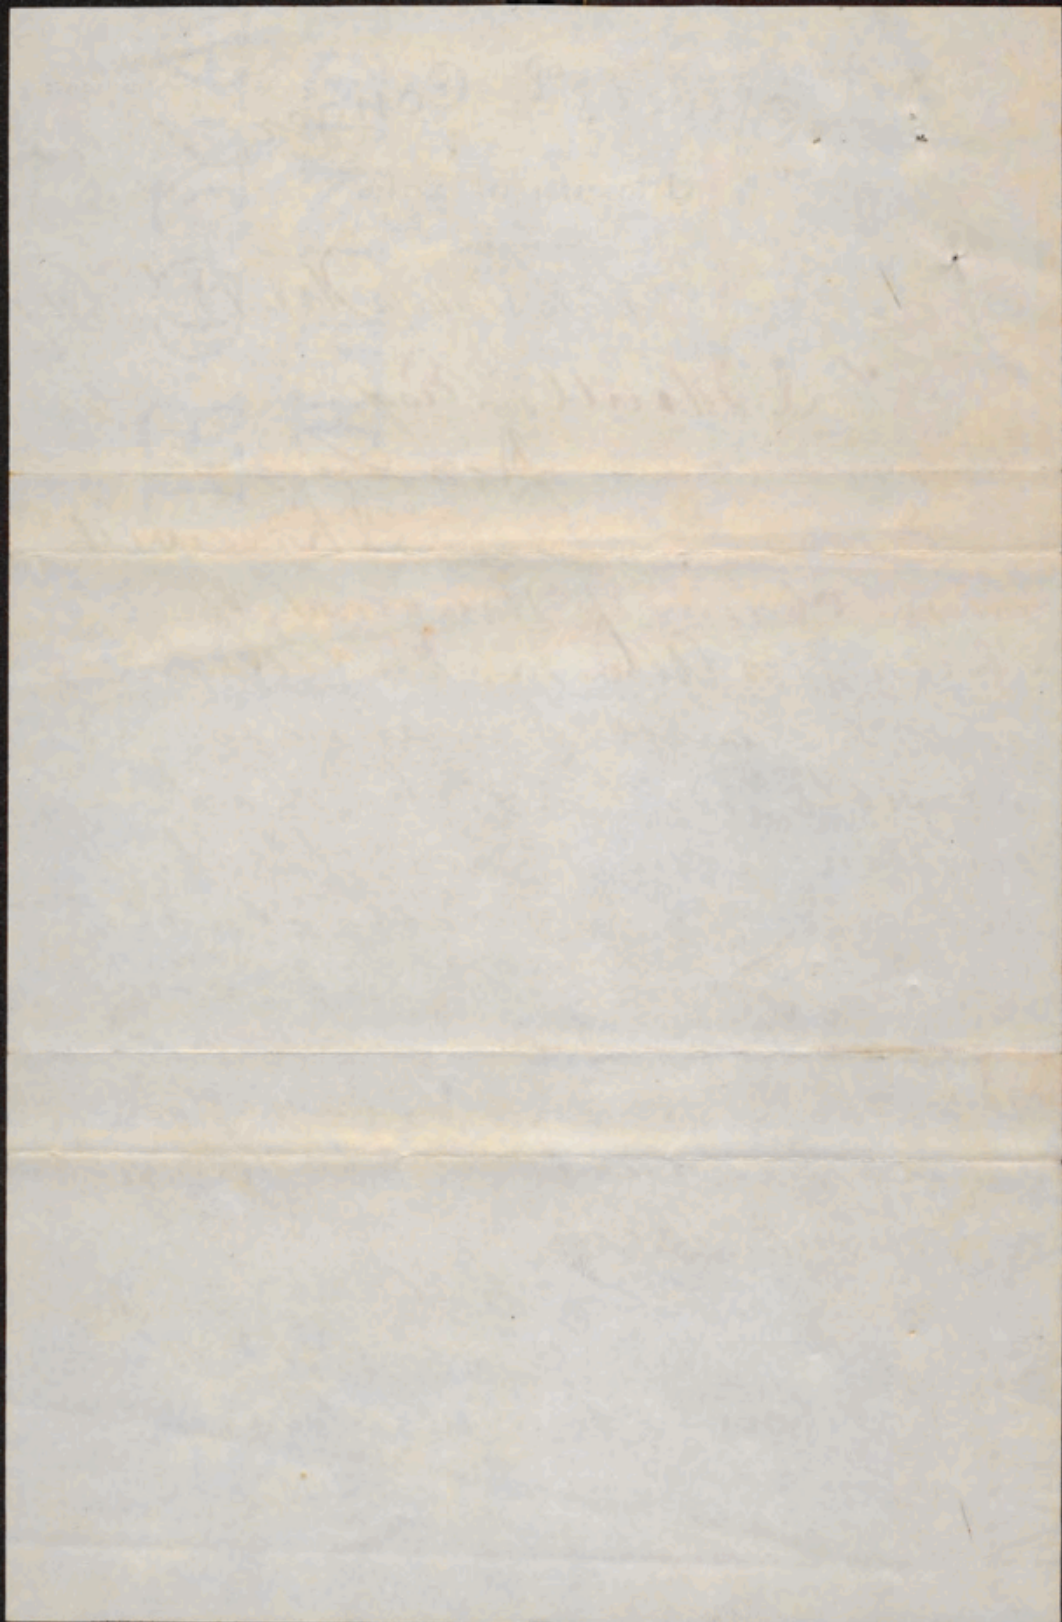

J. I. Moulton Esq.

Dear Sir,

I herewith return claim of University of Chicago vs Allison. Mr Allison says he will pay as soon as possible and that he had written them to that effect. The account is not collectable Allison's property being heavily incumbered. He says he expects to be in Chicago in Jan. and will look the matter up with them.

Very truly

Oliver P. Conger,
P.S. I doubt his intentions of paying it.
