University of Chicago Rules & Regulations

- Rule I All term bills must be settled strictly in advance.
- Rule II No deduction or tuition will be allowed on account of absence, except for a continuous absence of more than six weeks, or that by reason of sickness, of which satisfactory proof will be required.
- Rule III Any student who is absent from his recitations, or from the University, for more than two weeks at any one time, except on account of sickness, or for other reasons satisfactory to the faculty, will forfeit his position in his class, and with it all other privileges in the University.
- Rule IV Excuses for absence from recitation must be rendered to the Professor in charge; for absence from the institution and from chapel to the President.
- Rule V Three unexcused absences on the part of any student during any term will render the student liable to censure or suspension.
- Rule VI Any student taking a partial course must arrange his course with the President at the beginning of each term.
- Rule VII Students will be assigned to their rooms by the Registrar, and no student can change his room without the Registrar's permission.
- Rule VIII Day students cannot occupy the private rooms of resident students, except with the special permission of the Registrar, and upon the payment of a suitable room rent.
- Rule IX No repairs or alterations can be made in any room, except upon the order of the Registrar, to whom all damages must be immediately reported.
- Rule X No burning fluid or kerosene, or other oils for burning, can be used by any student, except upon permission of the Registrar.
- Rule XI Students are responsible for the care of their rooms & of the University property in their possession, & they will be required to give receipts for such property to the Registrar.
- Rule XII No student will be allowed to carry away from the city any key, book, or other article belonging to the University.
- Rule XIII No student will be permitted to room in the building during the summer vacation except by the permission of the President.

The above rules & regulations were adopted at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees held March 8th 1875, & it was ordered that each student be required to subscribe to them at matriculation.

Summer Term 1875

The the undersigned promise to obey the foregoing Rules & Regulations.
