

My dear Mr. [unclear]

I have just received your letter of the 14th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am also well and hope this letter finds you the same. I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are still as active as ever. I have been very busy lately but I have managed to find some time to write you. I hope you will excuse my long delay in replying to your letter. I have been so busy that I have not had time to do much of anything. I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are still as active as ever. I have been very busy lately but I have managed to find some time to write you. I hope you will excuse my long delay in replying to your letter. I have been so busy that I have not had time to do much of anything.

Very sincerely yours,

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Dear Friend Dr. Langendorff:

This manuscript represents the final formulation the late author gave to his famous theory. Hidden for many years, to escape destruction by the Nazi-terror and after a complicated journey it was committed to my care. To honor the memory of my ingenious friend and to honor you I entrust this unique copy into your custody.

Most sincerely yours,

Emil Schwarz

Dear Maurice :

My answer to the above lines of Dr. Emil Schwarz was that I considered the custody he intrusted me with as an "Auftrag" . You, Maurice, were the one I turned to in order to keep my promise of making known Spitzer's final formulation of his theory. You accomplished the task in the most lucid and scholarly fashion. No doubt, Spitzer's Opus Posthumum rightly belongs into your library.

In gratitude

Yours,

Chicago, August 1969.

Kisch

Dear Friend Dr. Langensdorf:

This manuscript represents the final formulation the late author gave to his famous theory. Hidden for many years, so escape destruction by the Nazi-terror and after a complicated journey it was committed to my care. To honor the memory of my ingenious friend and to honor you I entrust this unique copy into your custody.

Most sincerely yours,

Paul Thomas

Dear Friend:

My answer to the above letter of Dr. Langensdorf was that I considered the custody of this unique manuscript, Dr. Langensdorf, was the one I turned to in order to keep it safe from the hands of the Nazi-terror.
I am now, however, so accomplished the task in the past and I am now, however, so accomplished the task in the past and I am now, however, so accomplished the task in the past and I am now, however, so accomplished the task in the past and

In haste,

Paul

Langensdorf