

5. Anything resembling wine parties ~~are~~ is strictly forbidden on the journey. Furthermore, it is strictly forbidden of any member to leave the party at the different destinations.
6. If a case of gambling ^{among the members of the unit} ~~reaches the year end~~ ~~it~~ is suspected ~~the persons involved~~ shall be ~~it~~ and upon investigation the persons ^{found} guilty shall be discharged.
- immediately. All the subordinates must be strictly instructed in this regard.
7. Since, ~~the~~ carriers and pack-horses, are greatly reduced in number ~~all the members~~ are requested to keep the number of change of clothes as small as possible.

January, in the year of the Horse.

"We sincerely accept the above regulations. If by any chance any one of us fail to observe the above rules and be punished for it ~~we~~ we shall suffer it without the slightest complaint. We hereby submit our ~~bitter~~ written acknowledgment."

February 10. Gennyoshojin, the nineteen year old prince of Ise bid farewell to both parents, and left the gate of the ~~no~~ ^{some} temple followed by a train of followers ^{in good marching order} ~~who~~ ^{who} who served in this ^{troop} colonization commission. Just then it was at the hour of the serpent (10-12 A.M.). The prince was seated sedan-chair and others were all on foot.

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper]

There was no way of knowing (a less number) the number of men and women from both of noble class as well as the low class, who came to see the troop off. The streets were filled with people and the ^{voice} ~~sound~~ of the prayer ~~almost caused the almost~~ ~~shook~~ shook heaven and earth ~~the heaven and the earth~~.

To mention the names of the followers it will be as follows.

~~Shinoda~~ Shilama Hoga
The director (The chief spokesman of the group)

Shilama Hoga Raisai

The director (The chief official reports)

His servant: Ueda Zenkichi

Uno Sanmyemon Muchitaka

Police (assistant ~~at~~ in the travel)

Servant: Ito Torakichi

Police (Second in rank) (to join group at Nagoya)
(advisor)

Ito Matsuji Sessui Motosada

Servant: Fukuhara Kinzo

Chief Treasure of the outfit and manager

Ozaki ~~Ito~~ Hanzaemon Nobum
One servant

Treasure of the outfit group

Sugiura Iki Shige-yori

One servant

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Chief attendant and personnel officer.

Asai Isshossei

One servant.

Attendant and ~~chairman of~~ ~~official reception committee~~ officer in charge of reception

Oishi Goroku Masanao.

attendants Hiraoka Itsuro

" Miyatani Sampei

" Murata Osamu

" Ueda Hajime

" Inaba Toyoo

3 servants to above committee

Officer in charge
~~committee on~~ lodging and reception

Sasaki Tsutsushime

one servant

Councilor

Kanda Junji

Secretary, and keeper of the journal

Washida Shisei

one servant.

Chief reporter

Yoshioka Saburozaemon

Reporter

Ida Kazutaro Masaiichi

one servant.

Chief of the ...
...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

...

Treasurer

" Tabuchi Keiji
 " Ebi Gunpei
 " Kimura Ryojiro
 " Fukunaga Masaburo
 " Shitayama Takachiro
 member of Receipts Committee Sugamura Kinuemon

member of culinary department
 Ikeda Suetaro

Cook

Rikuda Komazo
 One servant

~~Waiter~~ Waitor

Asano Gansai

" Ito Munemasu.

Stable keeper and charge of the young helpers.
 Kato Tokinoshi Nobuchika
 One helper and four horse boy.

Officer in charge of the lodging of the young helpers.
 Shibata Yaginemon
 One servant.

Carrier of arms

Fujita Shunsai

" Yamashita Suteimatsu

Chief charge of tools

Oi Jigo
 Oi Gorozo

" Kitamura Kumezo
 all around helper 1.

Head of the palanquin carries. ²⁰ 1.

Palanquin carries. 6.

Carries of chests with legs. 7

(3 carries of Imperial ~~order~~ rescript)
Lunch carries and tea carries 1.
Rice-truck carries 1.

An agent of Mitsui

Terada Genjiro

(joint the suit at Nagoya)

One servant.

~~Two~~ Official monks.

One ^{senior} aged monk (senior

Senbo Yūshi

(died on August 8 in Ōshū)

(Senryūji)

His follower Tokuen.

Monks in charge of the Lalt

Reikian

"

Takeda Gentetsu

(of Butanganji)

Commander.

Asae Giten

(Kaientō)

Inspector

Asahi Enjun

(Kōshōji)

Kyūdo

(Shinkyūji)

(Both Asahi Enjun, and Kyūdo were substituted by replaced by Shōkōji of Myōhōjimura, who accompanied the suit as far as the the embarking place at Horijō)

Keeper of the chest containing the Imperial rescript

Jōkōji

(of Takata Ichigo.)

(Jōkōji in charge from Echigo but Nonpōji-Tōin was in charge ~~there~~ up to there)

Physician

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Physician

Nakamura Shuden

(Returns from Nagoya due to sickness)

Buto Ryōan

(Accompanies the suit from Nagoya)

Komori Juntai

(Comes to serve in Shinshū on March 24)

One servant.

Besides these, I just before crossing over to Hakodai there ~~was~~ ^{temporary} was an increase in number; ~~in~~ of monks, laymen, helpers etc.

20 double boxes, 4 single boxes, two long-chests, ~~and~~ small size long-chest. One back

1. shouldercarrying basket. 60 coolies. beside these there palanquin-carrying coolies for seven palanquins. There were seventeen horses: ~~it is~~ Matsukaze (Pinewind), Sazanami (ripples), Aoumi
(blue sea), Takasago (high sandy place), Kunikazura (vine of the country), Tomozuna (friend rope), Koma, etc. Therefore there were many cares of the horses.

At the head of the procession were two ~~with the~~ signs with the following ~~sign~~ words on them.

Imperial
rescript

Keifu of the New East Gate of ~~the~~ Honganji in charge of colonized work.

And the passport the group carried with the reads as follows.

"This time, in accordance with the Imperial wish we have been ~~ordered~~ ^{requested to} ~~asked~~ take part in the colonization work in Hokkaido and also to instruct our believers connected with our branch temples concerning this project. In this connection we ~~were permitted~~ received permission to erect missions in the central government a Sapporo, Ishikari province; Sorogun, Kohira-gun, Yoichi-gun and Sekitar-gun in the province of Shiretoko; Uragagun and Torosengun etc., in the province of Hidaka. We feel very grateful for ~~leave~~ we are told that other places also will be available ~~or~~ gradually as we build at these places. To carry out this plan we are going sending the prince of Iwate is the prince of Iwate is going on February 10 to start on his journey to ~~the capital of~~ ^{get built in way of} ~~to solve the problem of~~ food-supply, migration, transportation, raising funds. He will leave from Kyoto and take the Tozando route, from Shinshu road they are to take then go through Hokurikudo and go through the provinces of Uzen, Ugo, Mutsu and Aomori. From thence they will embark for the destination and make the trip in June or July ending the trip at ^{Sapporo, Ishikari} the capital of Hokkaido. On his way back the prince will cross over by ship to Homma, Nambu, from thence to Nishino, Morishita, Kisen, Sendai and then out to Tokyo. He expects to arrive home by September and make his report to the Emperor of his success. ~~This is~~. All this is not an easy matter to carry out, whereas this is a ~~matter~~ work of loyalty (to the Emperor) for which we all must feel responsible. I request the ~~lay~~ branch temples ~~and~~ to realize the significance of this plan and reverently ~~do their~~ give a helping hand.

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

As for emigrants, they will be taken care of by the prefectural governments, however we wish to urge many to go. As for those who may stay in Hokkaido may engage in agriculture, and as for the kitchen ware, and goods made at home must be carried with them as may be inferred by the ~~previous~~ above account. at any rate give your full hearted support to the successful result of the Imperial wish.

Sincerely Yours.

13

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

We have been ordered by the Imperial ^{The course} ~~court~~ court to ~~open up~~ colonize Hokkaido and to edify the people the people of our local branches [where] ^{the people of the} ~~the people of the~~ place ^{city} ~~are~~ the capital [of Hokkaido], in Sapporo County, Ishikari^{that we have received permission to} ~~place~~ ^{build mission station in and} province; Suto, Kohira, Yoichi, Sekitan counties of Shiribeshi province; Urakawa, Horosen and other counties of Hidaka prefecture, and further permission shall be granted ~~as~~ with the gradual progress of the work. We feel highly honored very grateful for all this ~~work~~. To encourage people to migrate and to tend to the transportation of food provisions the prince is departing from Kyoto on the 10th of February, and by way of Tosando road in Shinshu he will pass through Hokurokudo, ~~and~~ ^{and} the prefectures Uzen, Ugo, Mutsu, and Aomori. He will embark on the ship at Aomori and continue his journey through June and July ~~travelling the provinces~~ ~~of Ishikari, Sapporo~~ to get to the capital city in Sapporo-gun, Ishikari province.

On his return journey he will cross of to Honna, Nambu by ship and from thence he will go on to Hachinohe, Morioka, Kesen, Sendai and reach Tokyo about September. He is now planning to make this ~~for~~ effective.

To begin with this is a very difficult undertaking

The passport to pass through the various provinces is as follows:

"

but since it is a plan to express our respect for the Emperor I wish to leave you for your ~~moral~~ support after accepting the above mentioned facts. For those who wish to migrate may consult this respectable prefectural government and try their best to go. ~~For~~ Those who wish to remain ^[the] might also consult the [authorities] about farming implement, kitchen utensils ~~and natural~~ home made articles, and etc. They might do the same in regards to their transportation problems.

After all we wish ^{only} to fulfil the ~~Emperor's~~ wishes of the Imperial Court, so [I urge] you to do your best.

Yours truly

IV.

Lecture ~~tour~~ en route

On February 10, the prince started out ^{just} at 10 A.M. and took the ~~main road~~ Ōmi road and proceeded to Inino province, and arrived safely ^{at the branch temple at} Nagoya, Owari just as the evening sun disappeared after 6 P.M. on the first day of March. Not being able to refuse the requests of the branch temples after taking short rests and lodgings we made connections with ^{many as} 26 temples and 31 others, spending a total of twenty one days, and arrived ^{at last} in ~~Nagoya~~ ^{the} branch temple at Nagoya. Particularly ^{as for} the five villages in Goshu Omi ~~pref~~ province, when they found out that owing to the ~~scheduled~~ shortening of the days that they were left out of the program they came pursuing the procession, - some reclining on the palanquin, some sent messengers to the main temple in Kyoto, and their pleading was such that we had to retrace our steps from Nagoya and ~~detour~~ performed services at these temples. These facts will give you a picture of ~~what took~~ the extent of excitement ~~of~~ at this time.

From here the group hurried their steps, taking the Kiso road, passing on their way the Senba station of Shinano and paid a visit at Genkōji.

They also visited Echigo, Kokufu, Itagakawa, Komaruyama, the Juroku-nyorai of Takenouchi, ~~Hachizaki~~, from thence they passed Hachizaki, Kashiwazaki; ~~pass~~ crossed the Yoneyama pass, holding services at Nagatoka, Sarijo etc., and paid a visit at ^{the place where there is the} prince's ancestral ~~mon~~ remains. During this period the Prince conducted many sermons and conversion services, and drew unprecedented throngs of people.

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper, likely from the reverse side.]

When the group reached the province of Uzen they ~~were~~ enjoyed the hospitality of ~~a~~ Lord Nyesugi of Yonezawa. From thence they entered Sakata in Ugo and were entertained by a rich ~~farmer~~ ^{Mrs} Homma, a rich farmer. The group put up for one night here. Leaving here they passed by Hada, the castle ~~town~~, and reached Aomori ~~where~~ from which place they ^{were planning to} ~~crossed~~ over to Hakodate. However, before they got to Aomori, they got into a difficulty on the 5th of June when they arrived in Hojō, since ~~the~~ Lord of Kubota objected to the travel in his territory, this is because there were anti-Buddhist ~~and~~ people thriving in this region at the time. Therefore

"instead of passing through, Isuchizaki, Noshiro etc, [^{they} we shall] crossed over [to Hakkaido] directly from Hojō," thus it was reported to all the places connected with this tour. ~~The group on~~ ^{the} June 8. On the evening of June 8. The party left Seiganji of Hojō, and got on a Japanese style ship called Kōgōmaru and sailed for Hakkaido. From March 2, when ~~a~~ ^{the} sermon was delivered at Nagoya, branch, it required

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

94 days to get to Honjo. The number of temples where the group ^{with} put up or rested for a while numbered 142. Besides there were 125 places which does not fall into this ~~former~~ group.

The priest continued to give his sermons while his Senbo, Kaenbo etc., lectured ^{to the visiting audience} on the ~~say~~ dogma of the two truths (absolute and relative truths). ~~to the visiting audience~~, the sense of protection of Buddha's law, and one's debt of gratitude to his country and his duty to migrate to Hokkaido and to cultivate the country.

~~The itinerary since~~
The course followed since his departure.

Feb. ~~10~~ 10. Left Kyoto
arrived at Denkyuji

Feb. 11. Arrived at Homanji, Aichigawa.

12. Daitsuji, Nagahama

13. Remain ^[Daitsuji] at ~~12~~

14. Shutokuji, Sekigahara.

15. Hanshoji, Hirao

16. Remain at Hirao

17. Meitokuji, Kobe

18. " " Kobe

19. ^{Mei-}~~Myo~~zenji, Fusajima

20. Ogaki Branch Temple

21. Remain at Ogaki.

22. Seifukuji, Oshino

23. Takasui Branch

24. Takegahara Branch.

25. Banpukuji, Sumi-mata.

26. Koguma Branch Temple

27. 28 29 Remain at Koguma to communicate with the home temple.

30. Nishiribō, Nakaya

Mar. 1. Nagoya, Branch

Mar. 2, 3, 4. Remain at Nagoya
(Three days service in memory of the founder of the sect.
Priest delivers sermons)

Mar. 5. Seirenji, Inuyama

Mar. 6. a night's stay at Akasakajuku.

" 7. Branch temples at the fine villages in Ōmi,

8. 9. In Ōmi

" 10. A night's lodging at Unumajuku

11. Seinenji Kaneyama

" 12. Hōshōji, Kudami

13. One night at camp headquarters at Ōkubo.

" 14. Seishōji, Nakatsugawa.

15. at Shimazaki Gozaemon's of Tsunakage.

" 16. At Mori Heizaemon's of Suwara

" 17. Shiroki Juroemon Fukushima

" 18. Senneji, Narai

" 19. at Momose Senzaemon's of Arisawa.

" 20. Seikōji, Matsumoto (from hereon followed the Genkōji road)

" 21. One night at the camp headquarters at Aoyagi.

" 22. Genkeiji, Yoshida

(Worship at Genkōji, lead by some Genkōji men, we got to Honkakurin on the grounds of Genkōji. Visit to the main temple. Urgent solicitation for contributions.)

23. Shōzenji, ~~Suz~~ Susaka.

" 24. One night's lodging at camp headquarters Hisekigawa. (On the borderline of the province of Echigo)

25. Arai Branch Senmon given at Yokido (to convert attend service.)

" 26. 27. 28. Remain ~~here~~ at Arai (some monks came from pado to pay their respects. A large Hokkaido map was hung in the auditorium.)

" 29. at Sakata Branch

" 30. Remain at Sakata. (Verbal note presented to the Sakakibara, the Lord through a messenger.)

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I shivered slightly, pulling my coat tighter around me. The ground below was a vast, flat expanse of white sand, stretching out to the horizon under a pale blue sky. In the distance, a line of low, rolling hills could be seen, their peaks softened by the haze of the morning. The silence was absolute, broken only by the distant hum of a plane or the soft rustle of my own clothes. I took a deep breath, the crisp air filling my lungs. It felt like I had entered a new world, one of peace and tranquility. The sun was just beginning to rise, casting a gentle glow over the landscape. The colors were soft and muted, like a watercolor painting. I walked slowly, my feet sinking into the sand. The texture was fine and uniform, like powder. I looked down at my feet, marveling at the simplicity of it all. The horizon line was perfectly straight, dividing the world in half. It was a sight that I would never forget. The air smelled clean, with a hint of salt from the ocean. I closed my eyes for a moment, savoring the moment. It was a perfect start to a new day. The world was so quiet, so still. I felt a sense of freedom, of being alone in a beautiful place. The sun rose higher, and the light became brighter. The shadows were long and soft. I opened my eyes and looked up at the sky. A few wispy clouds were scattered across the blue. The world was so beautiful, so perfect. I smiled, feeling a sense of peace and contentment. This was my new home. I had found it. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I shivered slightly, pulling my coat tighter around me. The ground below was a vast, flat expanse of white sand, stretching out to the horizon under a pale blue sky. In the distance, a line of low, rolling hills could be seen, their peaks softened by the haze of the morning. The silence was absolute, broken only by the distant hum of a plane or the soft rustle of my own clothes. I took a deep breath, the crisp air filling my lungs. It felt like I had entered a new world, one of peace and tranquility. The sun was just beginning to rise, casting a gentle glow over the landscape. The colors were soft and muted, like a watercolor painting. I walked slowly, my feet sinking into the sand. The texture was fine and uniform, like powder. I looked down at my feet, marveling at the simplicity of it all. The horizon line was perfectly straight, dividing the world in half. It was a sight that I would never forget. The air smelled clean, with a hint of salt from the ocean. I closed my eyes for a moment, savoring the moment. It was a perfect start to a new day. The world was so quiet, so still. I felt a sense of freedom, of being alone in a beautiful place. The sun rose higher, and the light became brighter. The shadows were long and soft. I opened my eyes and looked up at the sky. A few wispy clouds were scattered across the blue. The world was so beautiful, so perfect. I smiled, feeling a sense of peace and contentment. This was my new home. I had found it.

April. 1 - 7 Remain at Takata.

(Paid a visit ~~at~~ to the home of Sakakibara, Go to Kasawara Honseiji. The Governor of Sakakibara's domain visits the temple. Presents received from the same, ^{In the afternoon went to the} ~~the~~ bones of the founder (7 the best), and on the 6th ^{paid} made a pilgrimage to the sites related to the life of the founder.)

8. Yoshōji, Sukisoko

9. ~~Yoshōji~~ Jōfukueji, Kakizaki
(Western Hōganji branch, but ~~the~~ site related to the life of the founder.)

10. Chōshōji, Nakahama.

(A note sent to Kashiwazaki-ken. ~~missed~~ was sent.)

11. Bunkōji, Kashiwazaki

12. Chōganji, Myōtōjimura.

13. Myōshūji, Nagaoka
(When the Imperial forces attacked Aizu, this city was burned. The Myōshūji is in temporary building.)

14. Remain. (Passage ~~to~~ Kashiwazaki to Giumozaki prohibited by the government of Kashiwazaki-ken which caused a day's delay.)

15. At Sanabe Gonichi at Shimoda.

16. at Ōno Gennojō, Mitsuke

17. Sanjo Branch,

18. - 30 Remained at Sanjo.

Homma Hideo presents a scarlet silk wrap for travel. and a set of horsegear.

May. 1. At Akitagawa Yoshitengu, Kamo.
(The Prince gave comfort money to the members of his suite.)

2. Kajōji, Niizu.

3. Mischinji, Mizuhara
~~Sanjo~~ Shimojo

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs or sections, but the specific words and sentences cannot be discerned.]

May 4 Jensehōji, Mizuhara

(Service for converts held
About a 1000 applicants found here)

" 5 Seikōji, Toriyano (Historical site of Sakatake. The Inv. Uyeda, the great secretary of foreign affairs, who had just returned from Karafuto on this day made a call and asked the Prince to go to Karafuto)

" 6 Myōanji, Igarashi

" 7 Shinjōji, Niigata.

" 8 Shōfukuenji, Niigata (There were over 10,000 people who were converted in the Niigata prefecture. Application for to over ten days 10 days residence was made to the prefectural authorities but it was not granted)

" 9 The group embarked on a ship from Niigata, arrived in Kamada. Took up lodging at Shinkōji, Matsuyama.

" 10 Chōtokuji, Shibata.

" 11 Jōnenji, Isokuno.

" 12. At Shirase Chōbee, Kaneko ~~not~~ Shinden.
Shirase Chōbee donates ¥500.00 and a horse with complete outfit. A certain woman his wife gave ¥50.00. Other members of the family made contribution according to their means.
(The members of the suite were ~~were~~ entertained.)

" 13 Keiganji, Rekumura.

" 14 Nozawa Yobee, Oguni (Province of Uzen)

" 15 at Tenokozawa

" 16 Chōmeiji, Yonezawa.

~~On the way~~
at Yonezawa the suite enjoyed special hospitality from Lord Uyesugi, the lord

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs and possibly a list or index.]

According to the journal of Mr. Washida Shisei, a member of the suite, "The headquarter, Chomeiji was unexpectedly small, and the temple was not large enough to entertain the suite. The living ~~room~~ and room and other rooms were all enlarged with ~~annexes~~ annexe. The fences and walls of the annexe were all the result of the consideration of Uyesugi's claw. His ~~personal~~ ^{sent his} steward and the commissioner of temples and shrines, ~~was~~ to look after this preparation and we felt as if we were here as ~~the~~ ^{the lord's} guests.

The head priest and all the household took up a lodging elsewhere all of which were done by the kindness of the lord. The lord sent messengers of inquiry and members of our party also went to the castle for interview. Matsui Sessui was our representative. Even after we left Yonezawa, the lord appointed special committee to look after our party with his province.

Such was the courteous manner in which we were treated. This is perhaps because he was well treated when he was in the capital the previous year and ~~was~~ ^{was} entertained at Kakuryo. (School)."

May. 17. Remain at Chomeiji, Yonezawa.

" 18. Shotokuji, ~~Kuro~~ Miyazaki.

" 19. Senshoji, Yamagata.

" 20. Remain at Senshoji (3255 converts as result of 2 services)

72
30

The Busschoji, the temple of duty for Asakusa Brand, brought a ~~personal~~ ^{confidential} letter to the Prince from
Mr. Maruyama ^{Sakuraku} ~~the~~ vice-president of foreign affairs committee.

The burden of the letter was, ^{that they have learned} that, Mr Uyeda, the chief secretary, who came to Seichoji at Toriyama, to persuade the prince to go to Karafuto. but an Imperial command once accepted for the colonization of Hokkaido, it cannot be lightly changed.
Therefore they ~~will~~ ^{will} consult the Karafuto matter ^{upon their return to Tokyo} only after the work of Hokkaido has been properly executed.

21. 22. Remain at Senshoji, Yamagata

23. Seioji, Tateoka

24. Nentsuji, Obanazawa

25. Genseiji, Shinjo

26. Chikeiji, ~~Senmaridate~~ (or Tomaridate)

27. Kōsaiji, Ōizumi, Shonai

28. Remain at Shonai (sends messenger to Sakata-ken)

29. Jōfukuji, Sakata.

30. Remain at Sakata (Donation from ^{Homma} a rich farmer, 100 ryo in Koban and a roll of gold brocade.)

June. 1. Gijōji, Sakata.

2. Remain at above

3. Kaizenji (Gen sect). Fukiura-eki.

- June 4. Jōsenji of Shiogae (under jurisdiction of Honjō.)
 " 5. Genōji, Honjō.
 " 6. Chōkōji, Honjō.
 " 7. Kōseiji, Honjō (messengers brought some ~~present~~ donations ^{of 2nd class} from Rokugō, the governor ^{5th rank} of Honjō clan.)

V. Difficulties of the road.

With the fall of ~~Nakagata~~ ^{Nakagata}, the era of Meiji supposed to have ushered in a peaceful regime, however being immediately after the Restoration, there were still number of loyalists and feudalists whose fervor had not completely cooled off, and the anti-Buddhist ~~was~~ sentiment being prevalent, the prince of Otani-branch, Honganji expected anticipated some trouble on his way. After the ~~said~~ party came on to Echigo road they met with number of difficulties and when they met with a heavy storm at sea the all determined to face death.

In the province of Echigo, the party had to make a change in their itinerary and due to the mixup at Kashiwazakiken concerning the passage to Izumozaki before reaching Sanjō after they left ~~the~~ ^{at} Nagaoka, again when they were

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

the party wished to stay ten days in Niigata they were forbidden to stay longer than two thus ~~and~~ disappointedly the ~~followers~~ of the followers.

Thus, the party met with one difficulty after another and ^{then met with the worst} when they got to the region under the administration of Lord Kubota ~~the party~~ ^{and} ~~was~~ refused passage. Earlier, on the 25th of May, when the group was about to leave Nentsuji (temple)
in Obanzawa, ~~a messenger by the name~~ ^{Representative} Kurozawa Ichijo, ^{and} who was under the command of the governor of Kubota's estate. Sent the following letter: "If you enlist members of your sect in the region under our jurisdiction, it will increase the difficulty for the whole of our domain; therefore ^{many of our men} ~~we~~ wish to request you to avoid going through ~~it~~ our country, but as you are a bearer of Imperial ordinance, we have no way of making this request. I ~~will prevail upon the people~~ persuaded and instructed the people but since a year and a half ago, the popular feeling became rough. ~~thus~~ If, therefore, anything should happen to you it will make it very embarrassing to me.
I, therefore, in light of the situation, wish to ~~put up~~ the following conditions up to you.

1. [I suggest that], along with the followers of your sect, ^{to have large number go out to meet you.} ~~to have~~ ^{But strictly guard them from entering the}
~~to have~~ ^{to have} ~~the~~ ^{roughness} ~~shall be the investigators of the roughness~~

investigator of the ~~sung-hins~~ rowdies will certainly make trouble. In case of business, communicate with the officers. Of course I shall send soldiers to keep order.

2. [I wish to suggest] that you will cross the territory under my charge at the rate of 10 ri per day, and I must ~~forbid~~ ^{forbid} you ~~from~~ ^{from} remaining in the ~~territory~~ territory.

Matsumi Sessui interviewed the messenger ~~and~~, wrote an answer as he was requested and delivered it. The two messengers returned in a hurry. The tenor of the reply made by Matsumi was to the effect that, ~~the~~ ^{his} ~~suit~~ his group, to prevent possible complication came with an Imperial order to avoid this misunderstanding and also to preach to the followers of ~~the~~ his sect, and, therefore, which to have the authorities help them effect ~~the~~ ^{their} aims. The condition in this domain was however as follows: Even if the suite enter the territory ~~not one~~ the followers were to be forbidden from entering the ~~the~~ tent, ~~of the~~ neither shall the monk of the branch temple ~~is prohibited~~ be allowed to enter ~~therein~~ therein. If a believer, if by any chance he breaks this rule and plead for ceremonies to pay ~~this~~ ^{the} respect, he will ~~not~~ forthwith be punished.

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]