Dear Folks,

Just try and find this place on your map! I think that we changed about seven times to get from Edinburgh to here by way of St. Andrews golf course, but we got here finally and Hamish is here so we are satisfied. As a matter of fact this is really a very lovely spot. but it is quite off the usual track of trains every half hours as 'twere. And another thing. maybe you think it is nib cold up here! I wish my new coat were finished and I had that to wear over my old one. Coming up on the train from Inverness to Dingwall there were several girls in fur coats. Imagine that in September!

We enjoyed playing St. Andrews this morning very much altho it rained a good part of the time. We both had raincoats so we didn't mind it in the least. In fact we quite enjoyed it.

We are now going to have a "wee" drop of tea before we turn in for the night so I guess I had better not let it get too cold as it will do very quickly up here near the North Pole.

Yours,
