Thursday before breakfast

Dear Mother -

I enclose a clipping from Chicago's tabloid paper as of Monday night. Did you ever read anything like it?
Isn't it awful, impossible & funny?

About the invitations to the reception. We have decided to send no announcements - just invitations to the reception which probably will be a big affair in a hotel. the way it is done on a large scale. The place (Spaulding & Gorham) where I will buy them has a free service—addressing (absolutely correctly) labeling, sealing stamping. Believe me I am going to use it for everyone.

 Most people do it this way I am told. Remember the work on Helen's? All that is required is a list of names & addresses.
 You send me yours, including all the family you think ought to get one, & I'll have it typed up together with mine in the office. Ed is doing the same.
 Please send same as soon as convenient without tiring yourself.

Please don't say - send me what's left over. That's no way to talk. You wanted to help. Now don't ask you to compose a complete list of our family & your friends & any one else you think should be included. It is quite a job so do it in small doses.

The number doesn't matter. The initial expense is the biggest thing. They are only $13.00 for each additional hundred. So it wouldn't be sensible to think of the price.

S & B want the list weeks in advance so the time is getting short. No date has been set as yet. I've been awfully busy in the office - no time to think or plan except to know that the list letter be gotten ready.

In haste - or I'll miss my breakfast. P. D.
