Dear Mother—

Yesterday Ed & I went down to look over the Cassino. I guess I am mighty lucky that we got it because I would not want to impose on Mary by having a big reception at her house.
I think it will work out very well. Many details will be handled by the manager of the club which is a big help. Very likely you as a non-resident member of the club - newly elected -

I'd love some beautiful, good ^{white} ~~linen~~ handkerchiefs that are just slightly lacey or fancy, ~~for~~ But I guess that's not ~~so~~ suitable ?? It's an idea - just one handkerchief. I have about 3 such that I try to always have clean when I go out to dinner or a luncheon, tho I have a big pile of handkerchiefs.

I think lovely plain glass flower containers (~~arrangement vases~~) are awfully nice. I can't think of anything more at present - I've been too busy to think along such lines.

^{usual} Got a new dinner dress - green skirt, white top with hood, new wrap & chas, which I needed now very much.

Did you understand that all the names you give me will be will be sent a bill for membership - possibly $35 or thereabouts. Would you please pay it?

Mary Albright wants to know if you & Dan want to, together with her, give flat silver. Please don't do it if you feel you can't afford it. She said she was given a silver set by a wealthy friend of John's & she wished it hadn't been so. I don't think it is necessary for any of you to do it, & I wished no one gave presents. Please don't worry about it. Probably, within the next 2 weeks I'll select a pattern & people can give me an odd spoon or fork etc. that doesn't cost too much.

sent ~~wedden~~ invitations to the reception - we are not sending announcements? I notice Miss Board lives on the North Shore here?
Did you want her on the list very much?
There is another consideration. Sometimes people think that when they receive an invitation to a reception it necessarily sending a gift. Therefore are you sure you want all the deans on the list? ~~Y~~

I am told etiquette forbids sending Miss Ethel M. Riles (?) & Miss Stella Cullen one invitation (whoever they are).
Are they sufficiently close ^{friends} to send ~~them~~ ^{two} ~~to~~ ^{both} invitations?
My only point is that since these are invitations, not announcements I don't want them to feel embarrassed. Your list was very short I expected one twice as long.
Are you sure you included every one?
^{Thomas} Mrs. Merchant is on. Glad you liked the pen. Thank Amelia for her letter. Nice of her to write. How do you feel Lida Perry Parker.
What are the Deapel Will Gendell's first names? O.D.
