FELLOW EMPLOYEES

WE have advertised "THE DAWN OF A PURE FOOD NAME" and for the building of a "BIGGER, BETTER AND BROADER ORGANIZATION," But as guests today, I hope we may build for a "BIGGER, BETTER AND BROADER ACQUAINTANCE"—one which will bring us all closer together and in so doing we will have attained a sure and permanent foundation, not only on which to build our own success but also the success of the Company. You are more than welcome. There are no bosses here today. Let us all get acquainted and have a good time.

There sat Silas and Miranda,
Thinking of the days gone by,
Said he; Dearie don't be weary,
You were always bright and cheery,
But a tear, dear, dims your eye,
Said she; they're tears of gladness Silas,
They're not tears of sadness,
It is fifty years today since we were wed,
Then the old man's dim eyes brightened,
And his stern old heart it lightened,
As he turned to her said:

Put on your old gray bonnet,
With the blue ribbon on it,
While I hitch old dobbin to the shay,
And through the fields of clover,
We'll drive up to dover,
On our golden wedding day.
