

Vice-President and General Superintendent Harry J. Williams, Mr. Thos. E. Wilson, Crown Prince Olav of Norway, and President Edward Foss Wilson, on a tour of the Chicago plant of Wilson & Co. during the royal visitor's stay in Chicago on May 4, 5, 6, in 1939. The Prince and Princess made a 6,000 mile tour of the United States which included a visit with President Roosevelt at Hyde Park.

(The name is occasionally spelled Olaf in the U. S. press but more frequently appears as Olav.)